

Peter Vovk Migration

At home there is war
and a lot of noise.
That's why I left my door
and abandoned all my toys.

Road is rough,
we get mocked a lot.
But we are tough,
we need to leave that spot.

Our goal is distant.
Could there be peace and harmony?
Maybe that place is non-existent,
well that's an irony.