

Taja Majdič Migration

migration

from station to station who knows what follows?

prejudices, bullying or discrimination?

another movement of the nation you can't know who to trust will your ethnicity always be discussed?

sometimes you don't know the destination, that's the problem with migration you just have to risk it all and hope you won't fall wars, political conflicts, poverty that's what bothers me people who don't have a choice are suffering while the 'leaders' don't even try to buffer it
