

Tea Replik Man from Iran

Roses are red,
Earth has a flu,
we have to ask ourselves
what should we do?

Roses are red,
we should connect,
so this our world
will be protect.

Roses are red,
violets are blue,
in this small world,
migrations are true.

Roses are red,
I know one man,
he told a his story,
he was from Iran.

Roses are red,
in Iran was a war,
he got scared,
and had to be careful more.

Roses are red,
he had to leave his home,
on this heavy trip,
he also broke his bone.

Roses are red,
he suffered a lot,
thank God,
he didn't get shot!

Roses are red,
he made to the end,
In Germany,
he met a new friend.

Roses are red,
violets are blue,
we have to respect everyone,
migrants too!
